Experience Scottish Adventures

Our holiday parks provide easy access to the wilds of Scotland, which makes us the perfect choice for walkers, hikers, bikers and climbers. Keen anglers can try their luck at Campsie Glen, Braidhaugh and Loch Tay; families and outdoor lovers will fall in love with Campsie Glen and Loch Tay; golfers will relish their time at Letham Feus and Sauchope whilst guests staying with us at Cruachan and Loch Tay benefit from access to In Your Element where a range of outdoor activities can be enjoyed.

Dog-Friendly Holidays

We offer dog-friendly options across all accommodation ranges and a special dog menu at a restaurant at Loch Tay, simply paw-fect!

Ways to stay at Campsie Glen Holiday Park

Camping & Glamping

Comfortably sleeping up to six people, our cosy glamping pods are the ideal alternative for those keen to holiday in the great outdoors without the hassles of pitching a tent.

Touring Pitches

Our spacious touring pitches are all set in a well-maintained, peaceful environment and surrounded by stunning Scottish scenery offering the very best of outdoor living.

Lying in-between the rolling Campsie Fells and the craggy Fintry Hills, Campsie Glen is our newest addition to the Largo Leisure family and is simply idyllic. Its peaceful rural setting provides complete tranquillity with everything you need on-park to make the most of your break.

With easy access to some of the region's highlights including Loch Lomond and Stirling, it's easy to set off on daily adventures, losing yourself in the wilds of Scotland. However, with so much to do on site, you might choose to stay and play.

Just under an hour from Glasgow Campsie Glen is close to the areas main attractions including the magnificent Loch Lomond and Trossach's National Park so swap the rush hour for a drive to Campsie Glen where you can check in and chill out.

Lodges

Sleeping up to six people, our rustic Scandinavian style lodges are plush and comfortable with master bedrooms, twin bedrooms and a family bathroom, all perched on the beautiful River Endrick.

Static Caravans

Choose from our two or three-bedroom holiday homes, each with central heating, double glazing, all bed linen and utilities. After something special? Then opt for one of our holiday homes with a hot tub.
